proudly dedicates this Journal to its Supporters

who have contributed to this charity for the past 50 years

PCF would not be what it is today without your generosity
Pediatric Cancer Foundation’s mission has always been to find a cure for childhood cancer by raising money for groundbreaking research and state-of-the-art medical equipment for world renowned doctors at the hospitals we support:

New York-Presbyterian Morgan Stanley Children’s Hospital; Memorial Sloan-Kettering Cancer Center; Stephen D. Hassenfeld Children’s Center for Cancer and Blood Disorders at NYU Langone Medical Center; Feinstein Institute of Medical Research - Northwell Health; Maria Fareri Children’s Hospital at Westchester Medical Center; Mount Sinai Health System; and The University of Chicago Medicine, Comer Children’s Hospital.

Understanding that no child or family should have to suffer the horror, pain and despair of pediatric cancer, we work with and support the efforts of world class experts at elite institutions who exhibit unique talents and interests, and thereby further the cause of research development.

The eradication of this devastating disease depends on our Foundation and the generosity of people like you!

Thank you for helping as we are...coming together for a cure.

Dear Friends,

As the President of Pediatric Cancer Foundation, I would personally like to thank each and every one of you, our dedicated and committed supporters. Over the past 50 years, our Foundation has made a difference in the lives of children with cancer; we have helped increase the cure rate from 58% in 1970 to over 80% today. YOU have made this possible!

And while this was not a year we could spend together; we certainly did give together. This special Journal started as a dream, and ended up a phenomenal reality. I thank Marsha Walker, and her never-ending willingness to see this through.

It is an honor to be surrounded by such an incredible abundance of passion, intelligence, and determination from our board of directors; for this, I am so grateful.

As we close out our 50th Year, we look ahead to a brighter future; one without pain, suffering and illness. I am confident, together, we will continue to make a difference, and bring that cure rate up to 100%.

With gratitude,

Pamela Strauss Peligri
President
It has been my pleasure and privilege to be a part of Pediatric Cancer Foundation for more than 40+ years and I am honored to chair this year’s journal.

My gratitude to you, our supporters, in aiding our efforts to fund cutting edge research to eradicate childhood cancers. The survival rate has risen to over 80%, however, one child dying, is one too many!

My special thank you to Pamela Strauss Peligri for her warmth, tenacity and vision as she leads our dedicated Board to new and greater heights.

To Nancy Joselson, Natalie Sambamurti and Judy Belkin, who tirelessly worked with me on this fund raiser for PCF, a very special thanks.

To Neil and Jay Canell my gratitude for generously underwriting our 50th anniversary journal.

Thank you again for your continued support which will enable the Foundation to achieve its goal in the very near future. PCF would not be what it is today without all of us coming together.

“In these extraordinary times, the support of PCF has allowed us to continue to offer novel therapies to children with relapsed cancer, to begin ground-breaking trials for inoperable brain tumors, and to examine the immune microenvironment of pediatric solid tumors.”

Dr. Stergios Zacharoulis
Herbert Irving Associate Professor of Pediatrics
Chief of Pediatric Neuro-Oncology

“With the very kind support of the Pediatric Cancer Foundation we have been able to move very quickly establishing novel institutional clinical trials focusing on the way we deliver drugs directly into the brain tumors. The first worldwide trial using Convection Enhanced Delivery via subcutaneous pump in children with Diffuse pontine glioma has opened with impressive preliminary results.

We are also about to open the first ever in children Non-invasive Focused Ultrasound study that will allow open the blood brain barrier and drugs to reach the target in children with diffuse pontine glioma.

A huge thank you to PCF for the incredible support for all these efforts…”

“On behalf of MSK Kids, I am honored to have the opportunity to thank the Pediatric Cancer Foundation (PCF) for its longstanding commitment to our institution. Since 1997, the PCF has provided vital funds that have allowed our investigators to pursue exciting new research initiatives with agility.

This year has been a challenging year for laboratory research because COVID-19 necessitated that we close our labs for 2 months. Thankfully, we have now resumed all research activity and now we are continuing to push forward with our search for new treatments for pediatric cancers. As the largest pediatric oncology program in the nation, we are delighted to have a dedicated partner in PCF as we strive to deliver the best available care for children with cancer today, while simultaneously doing the research that will improve outcomes for pediatric oncology patients in the future. In the face of a challenge affecting us all, thank you for your commitment to the cause of pediatric cancer.”

“The Pediatric Cancer Foundation has supported our fellows who have contributed to two fundamental discoveries this past year.

First we discovered that leukemia cells rewire powerful epigenetic “superenhancers” leading to the express of previously unrecognized proteins that allow cancer cells to resist therapy. Second in collaboration with the Aifantis lab at NYU we discovered a unique population of non-leukemic cells in the bone marrow that support the growth of leukemia cells and their numbers at diagnosis predict outcome.

The first discovery led to a large NIH grant and the second is leading to novel clinical trial targeting the supportive micro-environment to bypass drug resistance mechanisms. Both are examples of how we leverage PCF support to embark on “high risk high reward” studies.

Dr. Elizabeth A. Raetz
Director of the Division of Pediatric Hematology and Oncology
Hassenfeld Children's Center

“Generous support from PCF over many years has led to important discoveries in childhood leukemia. Our most significant accomplishments in 2020 were discoveries from the Carroll laboratory, where two postgraduate fellows are currently training, demonstrating the roles of both the epigenome and immune microenvironment in imparting resistance to conventional leukemia therapy. These discoveries will pave the way for new therapeutic interventions and current and past postgraduate fellows supported by PCF have actively participated in this work and are co-authors on recent 2020 publications.

“PCF has supported my science for over 20 years. In that time my Division has grown and we have spun off independent investigators. PCF has allowed us to start projects that have resulted in numerous NIH and DOD funded grants. PCF has provided the seed money that funds the acquisition of the necessary preliminary data without which we could not compete for federal funding. Of note, PCF was not deterred by the COVID19 pandemic. I am honored to have my research supported by PCF.”

We are honored to be involved with Pediatric Cancer Foundation and the amazing doctors and volunteers who contribute their time, knowledge and efforts towards eradicating childhood cancer.

Knowing that the money raised goes directly to research which has been instrumental in increasing the cure rate from 58% in 1970 to over 80% today is one of the reasons we believe so strongly in this foundation.

We will not stop until the cure rate is 100%

“PCF financial support allowed us to collect and analyze data from a large number of children who were at risk for severe graft-vs-host disease or GVHD, the major complication of bone marrow transplant. I am proud to stand among such an amazing group of women and men who work tirelessly and selflessly in their effort to eradicate Pediatric Cancers. Together, we are strong and I am hopeful that with the funds we raise and the research we support, our doctors will one day find a cure. Until then, thank you to everyone on the PCF team - I am grateful for all you do.

Stefanie Bartell-Zednik
With congratulations and love to all our friends who have worked so hard for PCF.... especially Brenda Siegler!

The PCF Board
“For more than 20 years, our lab’s work for children with cancer has been sustained by the Pediatric Cancer Foundation. The PCF never let us forget that we are answering the call of mothers and fathers, grandparents, children, and families of children with cancer—and that together we have advanced treatment and saved lives. Together, we have not only forged new treatments, but trained a whole generation of young scientists with the same shared commitment.”
WOWZA! 50 YEARS!!

Congrats to Pamela and the entire team!

Lots of good luck and love from Beth, Stu, David and Michael Sugarman
